The third part of The Queens College Black-Jewish People to People Project will take place on Wednesday evening, June 3 at 8 P.M. The topic will be "Affirmative Action and its Meaning for the 1990's," with guest speakers: Julius L. Chambers, Esq., director-counsel, NAACP Legal Defense and Education Fund; and Marc D. Stern, Esq., co-director, Commission on Law and Social Action, American Jewish Congress. The dialogue will be moderated by Rabbi David H. Lincoln and will take place at Park Avenue Synagogue.

Admission is free. All members of the community are welcome.

Rabbis Lincoln and Crespy Will Conduct A Tikun Leyl Shavuot

It is a Jewish tradition to spend the first night of Shavuot studying Torah, because it is on Shavuot that we celebrate the giving of the Torah to Moses and the Jewish people. This tradition is called Tikun Leyl Shavuot.

On Saturday evening, June 6 at 7:30 P.M., Cantor David Lefkowitz, together with the Synagogue Choir, will conduct a special Festival service, followed by the study sessions with both Rabbi David H. Lincoln and Rabbi Melissa Crespy. Rabbi Lincoln will speak on "The Custom of Our Fathers is Equal to Law" and Rabbi Crespy will speak on "What the Mishnah Says About Shavuot."

Cheesecake, in honor of the tradition of eating dairy foods on Shavuot, and coffee will be served after the study sessions.

Crespy-Kaufman Aufruf Saturday, August 1

Rabbi Melissa Crespy and Mr. Larry Kaufman would be honored by your presence at their Aufruf during Shabbat services on Saturday, August 1, 1992. They invite the entire congregation for a special kiddush following the service. Please join them in their simcha!

From The Rabbi's Desk

At a recent luncheon at the offices of Mr. Edgar Bronfman, I was privileged to hear a talk by Cardinal Edward Cassidy, the president of the Vatican Commission for Religious Relations with the Jews. It was encouraging to learn of the efforts of the Catholic Church to try to counteract anti-Semitism, especially in Eastern and Central Europe. I pressed him, however, on the attempts to "rehabilitate" the memory of certain Catholic fascists, especially in Slovakia.

Allow me to recount some history, in particular, the utterance of the Archbishop of Slovakia to a delegation of rabbis who came to intercede for Slovak Jewry and prevent their deportation during World War II (remember that Slovakia was ruled by a fascist Catholic priest, Father Tiso). He said: "This is no mere expulsion. There you will not die of hunger and pestilence. There they will slaughter you all, old and young, women and children, in one day. This is your punishment for the death of our Redeemer. There is only one hope for you, to convert all to our religion. Then I shall effect the annulling of this decree."

Rabbi Michael Ber Weissmandel in his book, Min Hametzar, recalls the answer given him by the papal nuncio when Weissmandel begged him to intercede with Father Tiso, who could have helped the Jewish families waiting in a detention camp prior to their deportation to Auschwitz. At first, the cleric merely responded: "This, being Sunday, is a holy day for us. Neither I nor Father Tiso occupy ourselves with profane matters on this day." When Rabbi Weissmandel protested that the rescuing of innocent blood could not be considered profane, the nuncio replied: "There is no innocent blood of Jewish children in the world. All Jewish blood is guilty. You have to die. This is the punishment that has been awaiting you because of that sin." This attitude multiplied thousands of times over and, not condemned by the Vatican, contributed to the death of the six million.

In fairness, there were many exceptions: the Catholic priest in Poland who hid Jewish families, about whom I recently read, was reported by his assistant to the Nazis and shot; the Archbishop of Kolozvar in Hungarian occupied Romania who protested the deportations. Such heroes, however, were few and far between.

We are happy about the improvement in ecumenical feelings. Nevertheless, we pray that we may never have to put those fraternal pronouncements to the test. I believe that there is a sincere change in attitude and, most certainly, here in the U.S. we live in an atmosphere of mutual respect and cooperation. This does not mean that we must gloss over the past.

Book of Remembrance Publishing Deadline is June 28

Park Avenue Synagogue publishes a Book of Remembrance every year for Yom Kippur in which members of our congregation can list the names of their departed loved ones. The deadline for the inclusion of names to be listed is Sunday, June 28, 1992.

Since there is no carryover of listings from one year to the next, the names of loved ones must be re-submitted each year.

Names of the departed listed in the Book of Remembrance are memorialized during the liturgical year when Yizkor is recited, during services on Yom Kippur and the Festivals of Sukkot, Passover, and Shavuot.

The publishing deadline for the Book of Remembrance is a firm one. Therefore, to avoid disappointment, return the card you will receive in the mail promptly.

We Take Pride In

Rita Rand who was honored for all of her years of hard work and dedication to the New York Service for the Handicapped on May 11, 1992 at Maxim's.

All About Shavuot

Shavuot, the Festival of Weeks or Pentacost, is celebrated exactly seven weeks after Passover. It is observed for one day in Israel and for two days for those of us who live in the diaspora.

Originally, Shavuot was solely an agricultural festival when the first fruits were brought to Jerusalem accompanied by much ceremony and rejoicing. But, as the years progressed, it became associated historically with the giving of the Torah on Mount Sinai.

During the services on this festival, we read the Ten Commandments and the general theme is the Jewish traditional love of learning. Also, the Book of Ruth is read at this time because it shows the great devotion of Ruth to her adopted faith.

Among the customs associated with this festival are decorating the synagogue with flowers, all night study (Tikun Leyl Shavuot), and the eating of dairy foods which is symbolic of the concept of Israel as the land of milk and honey.

Tisha B'Av Will Be Observed At Service On August 8

From sundown, Saturday, August 8 to sundown, Sunday, August 9, Tisha B'Av (the ninth day of the month of Av) is observed by Jews worldwide as a day of remembrance of the many tragic events in the Jewish historical past.

At Park Avenue Synagogue, a special service in observance of Tisha B'Av will take place on Saturday evening, August 8, beginning at 8:30 P.M. At this time, the Minhah Service will be recited, followed by the Tisha B'Av Service.

The somber mood of Tisha B'Av is reflected by the liturgical poetry recited during the service; and the beauty of the haunting kinot (dirges) is augmented through soul-stirring musical settings.

In this service, the lights are dimmed, candles are lit, and the events of the past are recalled through readings in the Book of Lamentations, selections of appropriate poetry, and the singing of liturgical music.

Hold The Date! High Holy Days Workshop Sunday, September 13

On Sunday, September 13, 1992 from 10:30 A.M. to 1 P.M., Rabbi Melissa Crespy will be holding a High Holy Days Workshop on: "Everything You Ever Wanted To Know About Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur But Were Afraid To Ask."

To be explored will be some of the laws, customs, and prayers of the Yamim Nora'im (Days of Awe) just in time for Rosh Hashanah 5753.

Babysitting will be provided.

On June 18, The Men's Club Will "Take You Out To The Ball Game"

Let the Men's Club "take you out to the ball game" at Shea Stadium to see the New York Mets play the St. Louis Cardinals on Thursday evening, June 18th. The cost is $30 per ticket.

The price per ticket includes bus transportation to and from the game. The bus will leave from the synagogue (Madison Avenue side) promptly at 6:15 P.M., after the minyan.

Since a limited number of tickets are available, act quickly by sending your check, made payable to the Men's Club, to the synagogue, in care of the Men's Club. Reservations will be taken on a first come, first served basis. For additional information, please contact Les Agisim at 371-3933.

Thanks To Dr. Cory Gold and His Patients' Donations To The Food Pantry Project

Through the auspices of the Men's Club, Dr. Cory Gold, a chiropractor, and his patients donated food to the High School Food Pantry Project. What Dr. Gold did was ask his patients, in lieu of his fees for a particular week, to donate the equivalent value of food to our synagogue's Food Pantry Project.

Park Avenue Synagogue thanks Dr. Gold and his patients for conducting this food drive on behalf of this project.

Congratulations
